Tony San

MIAO ART GALLERY

Tony San was born in the peacefully green landscape of Poland and moved to South-Germany at the age of 3. Since being young Tony was in love with colors, tiny details and Ketchup. Tony spent hours drawing little canvases and wanted to study art but her parents didn't support this path and convinced her to study IT instead.

For some years she lost her passion for the lovely world of colors but still developed creative solutions in her daily life and work. One day her sister decided to gift her some oil colors as a birthday present – combined with the words “never stop painting – I don't know how but you really have an eye for special things”. From this day Tony continued with her passion and started again to create art, finding her way more and more into abstractism.

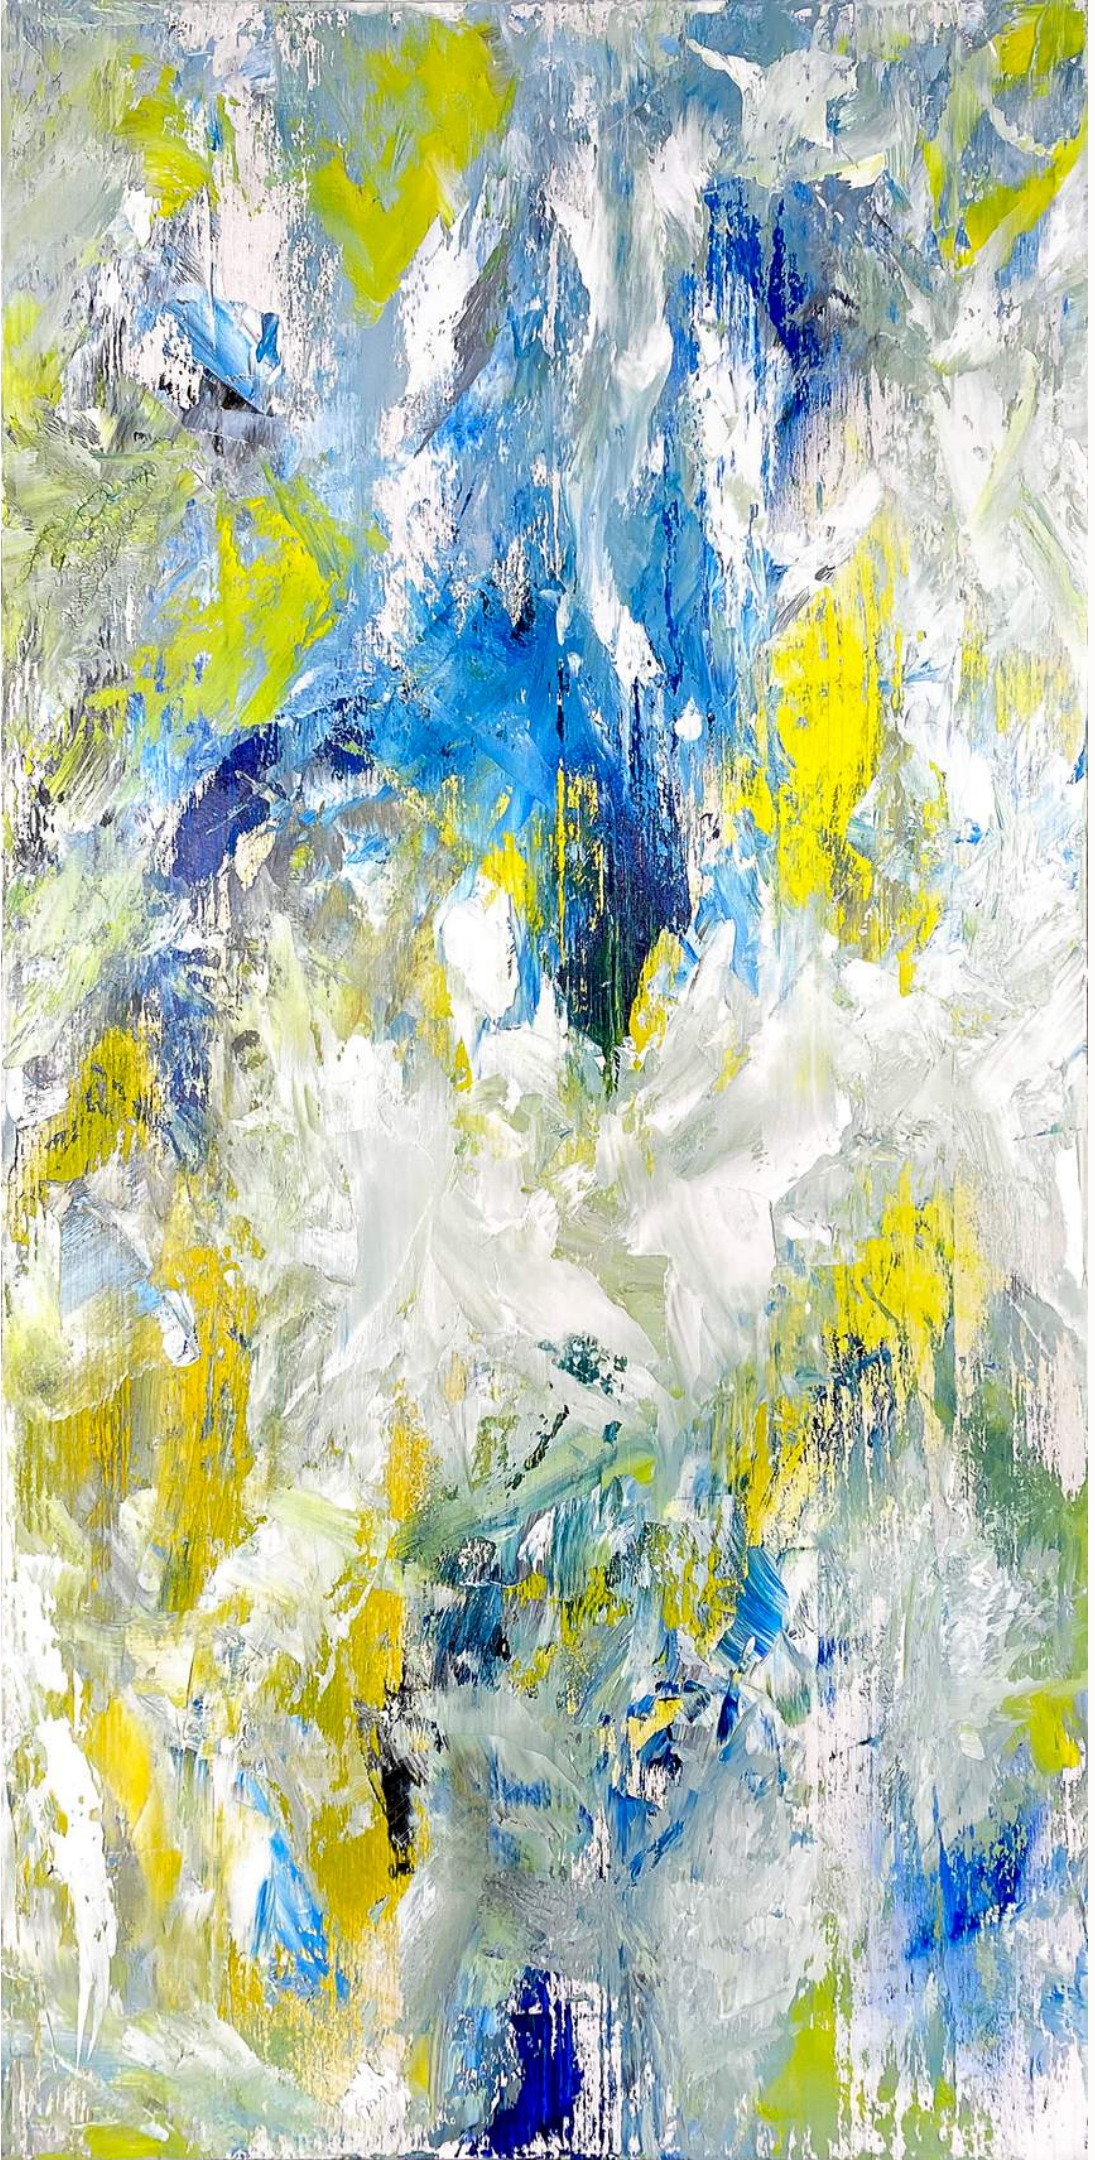

As an inspiration Tony San defines “flow energy playing with levels and contrasts”. She integrates in her mesmerising pieces deep layers and heights which drags the observer into the artwork. Using as material mainly oil, wood, and canvas - always combining the right tones.

She invites the viewer to surf the energy flows, waves and emotions. Troublesome and energizing – calm and relaxing, just a few juxtapositions of how playful Tony’s art drags and jumps. This catalog is presenting selected artworks of Tony San 2021 which were created in the MIAO art space.
